Amazing Grace - Key of D

Words: John Newton (1725-1807)
Music: Traditional

From DULCIMER JAM by Bonnie Carol, Available at bonniecarol.com

You might choose to play "Amazing Grace" in the key of D to accommodate singers with lower voices than the key of G called for. Again, this arrangement is for four-string fretted dulcimer using a flatpicking style. If you have a three string dulcimer, ignore the tablature notes for the inside treble string. Pick only the strings where there are tablature numbers. On the hammered dulcimer, I would fill in some chord notes to make the arrangement more complete.

Amazing Grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost but now I'm found,
Was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

The Lord has promised good to me.
His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come.
'Tis grace that brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home.
