

Cliffs of Moher

Traditional Irish Jig

This piece is named for the very stunning cliff face the western coast of Ireland presents to the wild north Atlantic Ocean. It's definitely a feature worthy of remembrance in song. Play all three grace notes in the first measure of the first line with bounces on one hand, landing on the other hand on the A. This figure repeats itself in the fifth line. Play sixteenth notes also with bounces.

Arrangement for hammered dulcimer © Bonnie Carol, 2003

♩ = 100

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 6/8. It consists of six staves of music. The first staff begins with a tempo marking of ♩ = 100. The first measure of the first staff contains three grace notes. The score includes several measures with grace notes and sixteenth notes. Chords are indicated above the staff: Am, Em, G, and Am. The piece concludes with a double bar line.